

Upper Woodford Autumn Term 2024

Miriam McNee / Chrissie Oldham

Topic- Chocolate

Literacy Performance poetry Diary Recount Character and setting descriptions Non-chronological reports Class Book: Wolf Brother	Science Properties and Changes of Materials - Properties of materials Grouping materials Separating materials Reversible & irreversible changes	Numeracy Number- place value Number- addition and subtraction Number- multiplication and division Fractions Times tables Daily morning maths
Geography Chocolate Understand the geographical aspects of cocoa beans Understand global trade Understand the importance of Fair Trade in the chocolate industry	Computing E-safety Sharing information Selection in physical computing	PSHE Me and My Relationships Valuing Difference
PE Football - play competitive games, apply basic principles suitable for attacking and defending Gymnastics- develop flexibility, strength, technique, control and balance	Music Musical notation Worship Band Whole school musical production Christmas music	History Chocolate Investigate the role of the Aztecs in the history of chocolate Learn about key events in Aztec history Analyse Aztec artefacts and historical sources Study the social structure of the Aztec society Discover the Aztec method of making chocolate Explore the history of Cadbury's Assess the impact of the Aztecs on modern society
RE Creation- Christianity Symbols and religious expressions-Christianity and Hinduism	DT (Term 2) Food technology	Art (Term 1) Van Gogh study still life drawings Painting study: Van Gogh's starry Night Aboriginal Art linked to "Wolf Brother"